

Your wedding day, long planned for, is over in a flash. For this reason, many families host a more casual get-together before or after the big event. The bride, the groom and the guests appreciate another opportunity to connect with family and friends they don't often see.

As you plan, remember, The Buttery can help with your catering needs. Here are some ideas:

Rehearsal Dinner

An antipasto platter, artichoke and spinach lasagne with or without Italian sausage, a garden salad with lemon vinaigrette, garlic bread, and for dessert, Tiramisu and chocolate dipped strawberries

Finger Food to pass when Friends Gather

(to decorate the hall, dress for the wedding, get their nails done, etc.)

Pinwheel sandwiches, deviled eggs, petite croissant stuffed with curried chicken salad, a fruit platter, and a selection of our most popular cookies

Brunch for the Morning After

A quiche, a vegetable galette, a couple of frittatas made with seasonal vegetables, Green Goddess salad, a fruit platter, an array of morning pastries, butter and jam

A Festive Lunch

Crudite platter with Green Goddess dressing, chicken enchiladas in chipotle sauce, rice pilaf with peas and toasted pepitas, avocado and citrus salad, with Key Lime Pie and fresh fruit tart for dessert

Hosting well, providing fun and comfort for your guests will make your wedding a memorable occasion for everyone attending.
